NOTES AND ORDERS.

The levy of the fee was sanctioned for one year as an experimental measure in G.O. dated 8.2.1934, and no proposal has subsequently been made for the continuance of the levy. From the enclosures received with the M.C. Letter, it is seen that the levy has been continued uptodate, without any sanction of Govt to that effect

Levy of a fee of three pies permanently on every cocoanut presented in the Sri Ranganatha Temple at Seringapatam.

In forwarding herewith copy of letter No.R.538/37-38 dated the 20th December 1937 received from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, on the above subject, I have the honor to state that Government, in their Order No.1067-81/Muz.150-33-4 dated the 8th September 1934, were pleased to sanction the levy of a fee of three pies on every cocoanut presented by the devotees to the temple for a period of one year as an experimental measure. It is now reported that the experiment has proved very beneficial to the temple, as the average income from this source is about Rs 500 per annum. that the Dharmadarsis of the temple, in their Meeting held on 22-9-1937, have resolved that Government may be moved to sanction the levy permanently, subject to the condition of the residents of Seringapatam being exempted from the payment of the fee and that the Amildar, while recommending sanction to the levy of the fee permanently, is not in favour of giving any exemption to the residents of the place. The Deputy Commissioner states that he agrees with the Amildar, as it would be difficult to distinguish a resident of the town from an outsider; and requests that Government may be moved to sanction this levy permanently from all those who wish to present cocoanut at this temple.

I, therefore, request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to the levy of three pies permanently on every cocoanut ------.

presented in the temple from all persons.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

K V Chandrasekhara

Muzrai Commissioner.
